Gary Thomas is a seasoned Criminal Intelligence Analyst at Cargonet, bringing a wealth of experience from his 24-year tenure with the Kentucky State Police. Specializing in auto and cargo theft for 14 years, Gary has played a pivotal role in numerous complex criminal investigations, leading to successful prosecutions in both state and federal courts. In recognition of his outstanding service, he was honored as the 2023 Civilian of the Year before retiring in 2024.

Gary is an active member of the law enforcement committee for the Transported Asset Protection Association and is a sought-after speaker on cargo theft, having delivered multiple presentations at industry events nationwide.