

Jessica Renner

Jessica is an accomplished and respected industry expert at Jarrett Companies where she oversees claims and risk management as a Cargo Claims and Risk manager.

Well-versed in both LTL and truckload claims, she effectively manages cargo claim disputes and processing.

As the Director of Communications / ProClaim for the Certified Claims Professional Accreditation Council, Jessie extensively researches subjects and collaborates with CCPAC members to publish informative articles on relevant topics, taking care to highlight notable changes in the ever-evolving transportation industry.

Additionally, Jessie is a member of the Transportation Arbitration Board as an arbitrator for the shipper's side and sits on the Board of Directors for the Transportation and Logistics Council.