

Brandon Arnold, CTB
Director of Business Development

As Director, Business Development, Brandon Arnold brings nearly 30 years of experience across transportation, brokerage, claims, risk management and logistics technology, including more than two decades in brokerage leadership roles. A licensed Property & Casualty insurance agent and Certified Transportation Broker (CTB), Arnold is known for his practical, relationship-driven approach to growth and risk management.

Arnold currently serves as Past President and Conference Chairman of the Transportation & Logistics Council (TLC) and has been an active member of the Transportation Intermediaries Association (TIA) since 2006, including service as Foundation Board Chairman and Treasurer of the TIA Executive Board.