Kyle Brennan, Senior Associate, Marwedel, Minichello & Reeb P.C.

Kyle practices in the area of admiralty and transportation law, including intermodal cargo losses and related representation of property brokers, freight forwarders, non-vessel operating common carriers (NVOCCs), indirect air carriers, and customs brokers; Limitation of Liability Actions; collisions, allisions, and marine terminal property damage; General Average and Salvage; insurance defense and coverage litigation, including hull, P&I, open marine cargo, inland marine, combined transit liability, commercial general liability, and motor truck cargo legal liability; cargo subrogation, including cross-border recovery in Canada and Mexico; and domestic and international air carriage. Kyle also maintains an active transactional practice, including counseling clients in the transportation on legal compliance and document drafting, including broker-carrier agreements, bills of lading, terms and conditions of service, charter parties, and warehousing agreements.